

Reed and Willow Furniture

OF THE BETTER-MADE KIND

We are showing in our windows to-day the prettiest Reed Furniture finished in Antique Mahogany that ever came into Barre. We want you to make an effort to see this, for we think you will say that we are all right in making this statement. Antique Mahogany on Reed is the last word in finish, and with the very heavy cretonne with which these pieces are upholstered, makes them as durable as the more expensive leather and tapestry.

A five-piece Suite, including a Divan, Rocker, Chair, Stand, and Foot Rest, makes a desirable furnishing for your best room, and are here shown. Call and see them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young of Eastern avenue entertained about 100 neighbors and friends at a corn roast at the Shepard grove, Montpelier road, last evening, the guests being taken there in automobiles. A delightful evening was spent about two huge bonfires, which warmed the chilly fall atmosphere and made a congenial glow about which the happy party gathered. Corn, hot coffee, doughnuts, marshmallows and apples were served and the guests were royally entertained. Before their return to the city all expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Young their appreciation of the good time provided.

Lads of the north end are becoming more enthusiastic over boxing since one of their number, Edgar Beaulieu, aged 17, displayed his ability at a temporary ringside in Northfield last Monday. Beaulieu's opponent was an amateur from Boston, who is passing a vacation with relatives in Northfield. This match was arranged purely for the sport of the day's program. The match went for three rounds, and was fast throughout. No decision was made by the referee, but as scheduled, the contest stopped after some clever work had been exhibited by both sides, though Beaulieu was easily the winner, had a decision been made.

Mrs. A. LaPage was pleasantly surprised by the members of the ladies' auxiliary of the A. O. U. upon the occasion of her 50th birthday anniversary, when she returned home from a neighbor's early last evening to find the ladies waiting her return. Games and whist were played. Mrs. O'Keefe and Mrs. Cleary won the first prizes, while Mrs. Hanlon and Mrs. B. Humphrey were awarded the consolation prizes. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Before departing, Mrs. J. Hastings, on behalf of the ladies, presented Mrs. LaPage a purse of money, to which she fittingly responded. After that the party broke up at a late hour, wishing the hostess many more happy birthdays.
